

Working Student/Internship in Marketing & Business Development

Did you know that 30% of all active servers in the US are running without any purpose? That's the equivalent of wasting the energy of 4 nuclear power stations!

Replex enables enterprise customers to win back control over complex IT-Infrastructures. The software bundles all the information about the IT-stack in one single source of truth, no matter whether the infrastructure is based on physical servers, virtual instances or containers.

Founded in 2016, we currently have offices in Leipzig, Berlin, Duisburg and San Francisco. Internationalization and fast growth mean new opportunities, but also comes with new challenges. To keep our pace, we are looking for a high paced and motivated Working Student or Intern to support us in the area of Marketing & Business Development.

Your role at Replex:

- ✓ Development and maintenance of our social media channels
- ✓ Help with the conception and implementation of marketing strategies
